

LEA Global

Invitation | International Tax & Transfer Pricing Forum | Tokyo | 2 November 2026

As international tax rules continue to evolve and transfer pricing remains a key area of focus for multinational organisations, businesses face increasing complexity in managing cross-border operations and risk.

As part of the LEA Global World Conference in Tokyo, we are pleased to invite you to the LEA Global International Tax & Transfer Pricing Forum.

Monday 2 November 2026

1:00 PM – 4:30 PM

ANA Intercontinental 1-12-33 Akasaka Minato-ku Tokyo, 13 107-0052

This forum will bring together LEA Global member firms, clients and prospective clients for an afternoon of discussion on international tax and transfer pricing developments affecting internationally active businesses.

The programme will include:

- Perspectives from experienced international tax and transfer pricing advisers
- Discussion of current developments and emerging issues across jurisdictions
- Client perspectives on operating across borders
- An interactive panel discussion and audience Q&A
- Opportunities to network with professionals from across the LEA Global community

Designed for organisations with international operations, the forum will focus on practical considerations, emerging challenges and opportunities in an increasingly complex global environment.
